COMMON CORE PETITION

The Tennessee state chapter of Concerned Women of America is circulating a petition to repeal Common Core standards in Tennessee. Brenda Causey, TN State Director of CWA, is asking for our support in getting as many signatures for the petition across the state as possible. I have attached an on line petition and a PDF copy of a printable petition. It is our hope that you will take a copy of the printable petition every where you go and ask people to sign. Checking out at the super market.....ask the check out person to sign. Walk you neighborhood, take it to church, take to meetings. Take it everywhere. Brenda will be taking all printed petitions and all online signatures to our Governor when the legislative session begins and bills against Common Core and other education issues are filed. PLEASE spread this effort far and wide. This single action could show our Governor how serious the citizens of Tennessee are about repealing Common Core standards. The estimated population of TN in 2012 is: 6,456,243 I would love to see at least 64,000 signatures go to our Governor.

THE COST OF CHARTERS
THEY DON'T WANT YOU TO KNOW ABOUT

Philadelphia is starting to wake up to the fact that Charter Schools bleed funds to the traditional public school. Philadelphia has also had a lot of Charters close down. This is not just happening in Philadelphia. Have you ever heard of a traditional public school that was open on Friday and found abandoned on Monday morning? No. But this can and does happen with Charters leaving hundreds of students stranded. There are some Charters that are opened with all good intentions but the big money people trying to own education (Pearson, Gates, Walton Family, Eli Broad etc etc) see Charters for PLEASE share with anyone you know that home schools or who supports home schooling.

ANOTHER MESS WITH PEARSON EDUCATION

There is Pearson Foundation (that was just sued) and Pearson Education.

This is another long email but it is worth the time.

PARENTS OR BREEDERS FOR THE GOVERNMENT

Could it be possible that someday adults will be breeders for the government and the concept of parents being the stewards of their children's best interest a thing of the past? I believe we are moving in that direction. I ask that you take the time to read this article about new technology planned for education by Pearson. Understand the man that runs Pearson (Sir Michael Barber) is a Communist and believes the UN should rule the world. He also believes in the Earth Charter and he is a supported in George Soros plan to eliminate borders. And Pearson is involved in every facet of American education. Bill Gates and Pearson are legal partners. Think we need to drive Pearson out of America.....I sure do. Really now, think of the money these two companies will make off of their schemes. There are many

CASH COW. Eventually those schools with good intentions will be bought out by those that see education as the CASH COW and they are going to take advantage of the fact that the American people are willingly handing over education to these evil criminals. Remember Pearson is a big supported of the UN, Gates signed an agreement with the UNESCO. These are not good people. They do not have honorable intentions.

BILLIONAIRES FUNDING CHARTER SCHOOL ORGANIZATIONS

Just in case you missed this chart from last week I am sending it again. You need to understand Charters are being used to privatize public education. Search for the BIG 3 - Gate, Walton, Broad and then look at the Charter Organizations they are funding. CHACHING!!!

MD and PARCC HEATS UP

There are many things in this article that should be very concerning to the people of Tennessee. 1. Gov. O'Malley is probably the most progressive Governor in the US. 2. no bid contracts are given.....PARCC is the only name in town...because the federal government is running the show 3. PARCC contracts with Pearson.....now ain't that cozy 4. MD will be making the decisions for 18 states and DC? There is a reason why MD was given the "honor" that FL gave up.....this Governor is so progressive there is no chance he will ever backed out of Common Core or PARCC.

THE ARGUMENT FOR CURSIVE WRITING

Aside from the neurological benefits from learning to use cursive writing discussed in the article below think about our founding documents, family letters and diaries. When our children can no longer read original writings history can and will be re-written for this blog I strongly recommend it. This is a safe place for TN parents and teachers to share their experiences with Common Core.

documents will become common place. If you have never read the book "1984" it might be a good time to read it. Who would have ever thought so many years ago that book would be true in our world today. We hope to have a bill to restore the teaching of cursive in Tennessee schools in 2014.

BEWARE OF PIGS WEARING A NEW SHADE OF LIPSTICK

We are going to see a lot of this. They will try to change the color of the lipstick on the pig and hope we won't catch on. Many states are already saying they refuse to adopt the Next Generation Science Standards or any other national standards beside Common Core Math and ELA BUT we all know this is not true. And the folks in Oklahoma set out to prove it. Attached please find the comparison they did between Next Generation and the new OK Science standards. SURPRISE....they are identicle.

EVERYBODY IS LOOKING TO CASH ON ON CHARTERS

Rocketship Education has received over $1 million in grants from Bill Gates. Aren't you so happy that TN only allows Charters owned by non-profits. Remember The Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation IS A NON=PROFIT. One day when they shut down most of our public schools you are going to find Gates, EXXON, GE shingles hanging over the doorways to all schools. Charters WILL destroy traditional public schools. Think about it. These schools can shut there doors at anytime leaving kids without an immediate place to go. That cannot happen with traditional public schools, Charters can be bought and sold. Mom and Dad could own the Charter school in your neighborhood today and Bill Gates writes them a nice check tomorrow. Gulen schools in LA are now found to be owned by some extremely controversial people pushing an anti-Christian, anti-American agenda. CAN YOU SAY PUBLIC EDUCATION HAS BECOME A CASH COW AND this administration has opened up the flood gates. We have big business doing the governments dirty work. As you talk to your legislators we need them to understand we are being lied to about Charter Schools. REMEMBER....CHARTER SCHOOLS are funded by your tax dollars and will be required to implement Common Core Standards. They select the students that attend which allows them the ability to only accept the better performing students so their achievement rate looks better. Even with that many of these schools do no better and many do worse than the traditional public

You also might want to take a deeper look at Mr. Agassi's organization. Not much of the 3 R's going on in this organization. Take a look at the Team. Again, this is a cash cow opportunity not and opportunity to improve education. Remember our tax dollars pay for these schools.
